

Becoming a leader

PURPOSE

- Understand the challenges and rewards of becoming a leader.
- Being prepared to endorse the role of a real leader: from obtaining the legitimate position of “the boss” to building its credibility as a leader.
- Mastering the two great major functions of a leader: the Management (Processes) and Leadership (People) activities.
- Overcoming the challenges of – eventually – becoming the boss of its previous colleagues.

STANDARD AGENDA (Most agenda’s are adapted to your specific situation)

- Understanding and mastering the clear difference between Management, Leadership, Manager and Leader.
- The essential qualities of a newly appointed leader: humility, listening, thinking before acting, decision making and team building.
- Building the daily and weekly routines as a standard for improving the efficiency as new in the function.
- Leading meeting and obtaining the engagement of the team.
- Building a real team around a common compelling project.
